

SPECIAL REMBERANCE MASS.
ON Sat 26th Nov at 7.30
in St Kevin's

We invite all in our parish who have experienced a death of a close family member since the start of Covid.

Because of Covid we have been unable to hold this remembrance mass for the last three years. A candle will be lit for each person remembered.

Please pray for the Holy Souls during this month of November.

Humour:

I haven't spoken to my mother-in-law for eighteen months....

Don't like to interrupt her.

At the office, I am known as "The Computer" Not because I am smart. But if I am left unattended for 10 minutes, I go to sleep.

My fear of moving stairs just never stops escalating.

3rd prize a large hamper.

4th prize Family Roast donated by Murphy Victuallers

5th prize Turkey. Seeking sponsor.

Help Needed.

In organising the coming Christmas Fair, one is made more aware of the great helpers and community people who have either passed to better things are no longer physically able to help. Many of these were the loyal helpers one could always count on.

Normally younger people would be moving in to take their place, but perhaps it is because people are more busy today or else do not see the value of community, they seem unwilling to volunteer.

We do need helpers to get things set up, we also need a Santa and helpers. We appeal especially to young people to come forward.

Holy Souls

Please join us for mass for Holy Souls and those whose names are written in the Remembrance Book this week on Wed Thurs and Friday morning at 9.30

Whose side are you on.

To acknowledge Christ as king is to acknowledge his authority in our lives. In the world of Kings the number one virtue of those under his rule was loyalty, a readiness to obey, to follow and to submit. The number one sin against your kings was disloyalty and rebellion. Treason was the greatest offence, that is to do things that would lead to the destruction of the kingdom.

When we consider Christ's kingship over us, we should see thing in these terms. Christ cannot be king in our lives if we refuse to submit to Him. To not respect Him is disloyalty and to break his laws is rebellion,

Christ has told us that lip service is not enough, neither is casual acquaintanceship. But real loyalty and service wins us a place in his eternal Kingdom

Please take a look at the Parish Web site. It contains a video to explain the mass readings for Children. There is also interesting material there for adults.
